Mr Crane,

When you leave Everett High, you will be leaving your home! We will always remember your smiling face in 215. I will always remember ^{us} as being one of my best teachers!

The parades and the football games will always be a memory! Good & bad!

When you are in your new school, remember when you had a good Band! Especially, the clarinet section!

May you always have the best because if anyone deserves the best, you do!

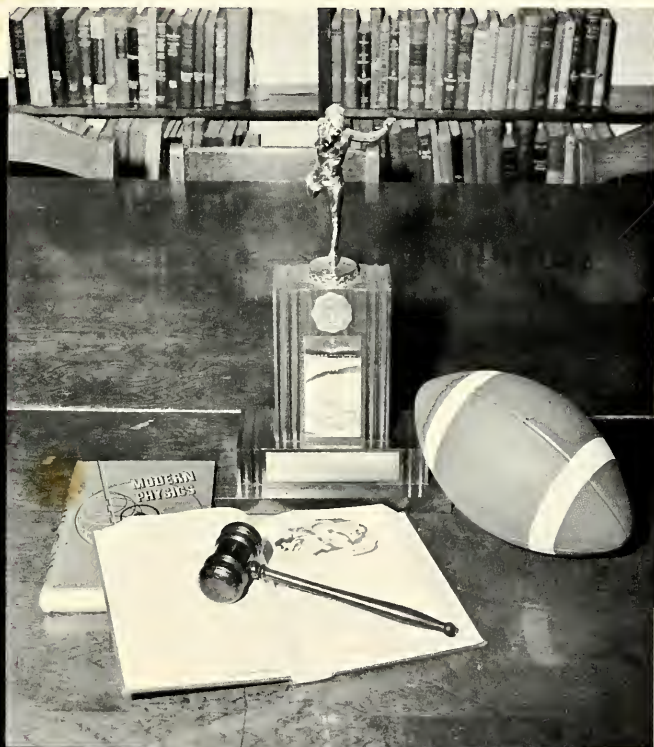

Good Luck!

Foreword

The halls of Everett High School in which we have spent some of the best years of our lives may not be the most elaborate, but the many things we have done there make them sacred to us. The proms, plays, games, dances, and the many other activities in which we have taken part have given us many MOMENTS TO REMEMBER.

In 1957, there were many things that happened that we will always remember. President Eisenhower was elected to his second term as President, while Governor Williams was elected to his fifth term as Governor. We had our elections at school as well. We elected Kings and Queens to reign over our football and basketball homecomings, class officers, and many others.

Years from now, when our paths have parted, we will look back through these pages and remember vividly the many moments we spent together at Everett. Come with us as we review the moments that we will always remember. . . .

Dedication

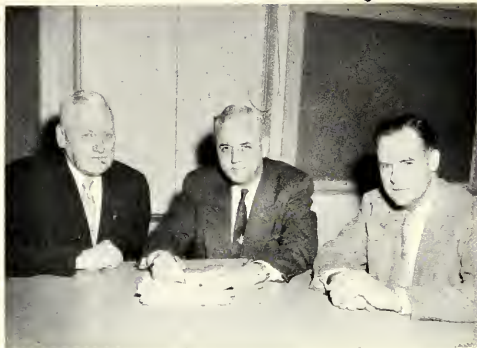

MYRON J. SMITH

Coach Smith talks the situation over with the boys.

The ARCHIVES staff is very proud to dedicate this book to Mr. Myron Smith. His happy smile, high ideals, and untiring work have earned him a high position in our list of names and occasions that we will always remember. To you, Mr. Smith, we extend our thanks for all the help you have given so enthusiastically to prepare us to meet the trials and tribulations that we will meet after graduation. It is a privilege to honor you in this small way.

Busy Administrators

Dr. Dwight H. Rich, Superintendent of Schools; Dr. Forrest G. Averill, Deputy Superintendent of Schools; and Mr. Stephen A. Partington, Assistant Superintendent of Schools

Blue carpet? Shades of brown . . . At one time or another, the 340 senior high pupils of Everett have stood on either carpet and requested help in choosing a college or a schedule change, in running a school dance or a candy sale. Mr. Leyrer and Miss Christenson have directed the curricular and extra-curricular activities for the high school as well as for Everett's 141 seventh grade pupils.

Miss Elfie Christenson, Assistant Principal; Mr. Benjamin E. Leyrer, Principal

. . . need Skilled Helpers

One more noon lunch is ready to be served by Mrs. Agnes Cooley and Mrs. Fern Smith.

School secretaries, Mrs. Constance Durant and Mrs. Kathryn Woodland, give daily assistance to Mr. Leyrer and Miss Christenson.

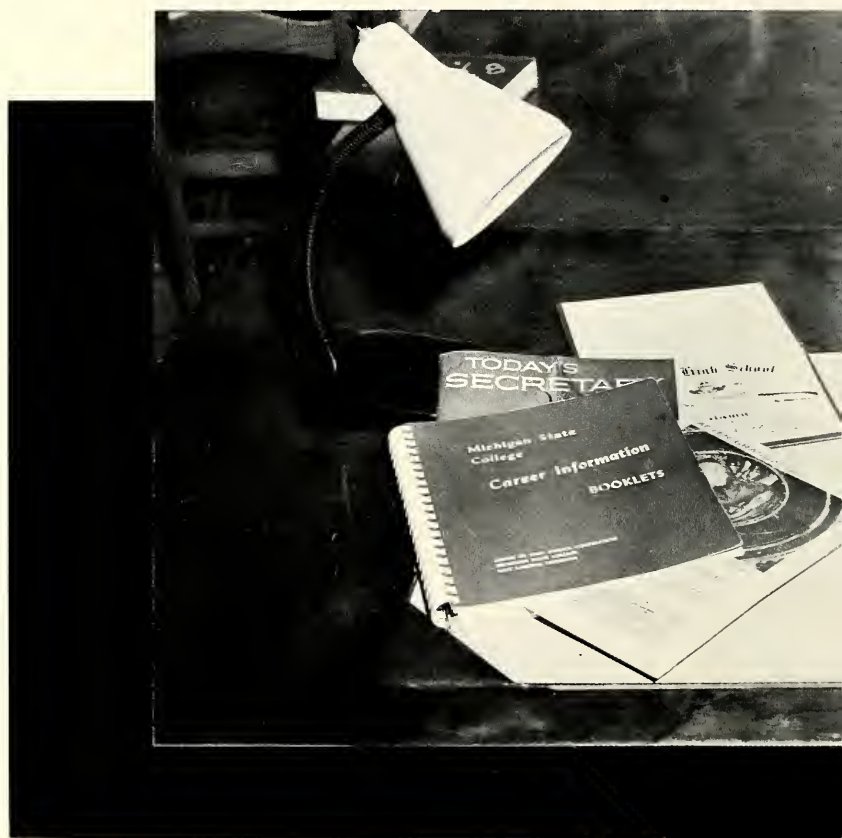

Has anyone turned in a history book? . . . Oh another broken bottle of ink . . . Turkey for lunch! Indeed these are moments we will remember, for our adult helpers were friends when we were in need.

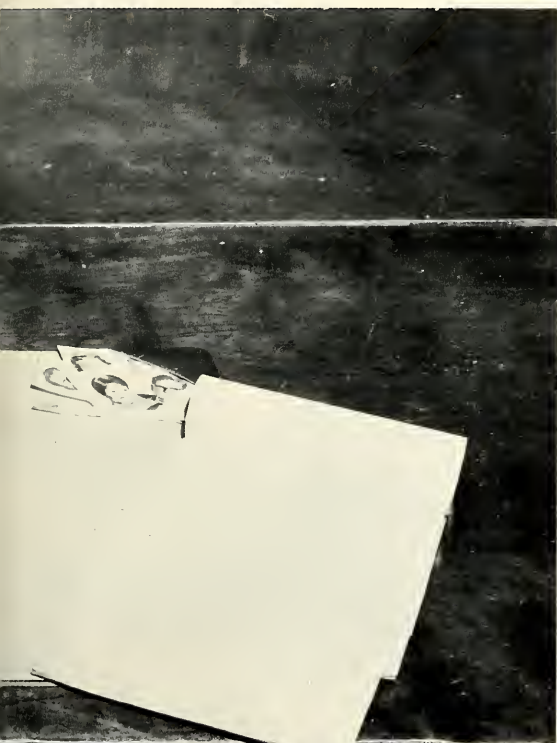

Mr. Harry Curtis and Mr. Clyde Grant stock the locker shelves with towels. Other custodians include Robert Browner, Walter Hartley, Frederick Hyatt, Wesley Reese, Arthur Sorlas. Lawrence DeWitt is the night watchman.

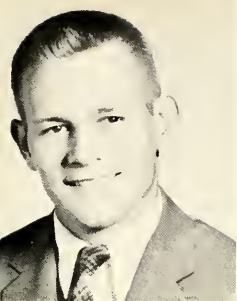

Mr. George Lewandowski makes crossing safe on busy Cedar Street in front of Everett High School.

For every step forward we leave an impression behind.

As we, the class of 1957, look back upon our high school years at Everett, we remember many events that highlighted them. Among these important events were our two proms, Garden of Paradise and Fantastique; also contributing cherished memories were our two plays, Desperate Ambrose and You Can't Beat the Irish.

Shari

Shari Whitmore, a classmate, was injured last summer and is now partially paralyzed. Though Shari won't be with us, our thoughts will be directed to her on graduation day.

Good luck, Shari!

Now the time has come when old friends must part and new friendships must be formed. We realize fully the responsibilities placed upon our shoulders as we enter the world outside. We will try to assume these responsibilities and develop our character to make this world a better place for future generations.

Everett's cross country team had one of its best seasons in many years in winning eight, and losing only two meets. Winning efforts were the Hastings Invitational, Albion Invitational, Capitol Circuit, and the State Championship. The only two meets the boys lost were lost to Eastern in a dual meet and finishing second place in the All-City.

Everett's one-two combination, R. Hopkins, left, and G. Hoffmeyer, right, were broken up only twice. They ran one-two in the State meet.

With the State Championship, the team won four trophies. The team members won 22 medals and 21 ribbons.

The Everett Viking season was not a victorious one, although the boys played with determination to win. Through the expert training of Mr. Bauer and Mr. Shippey, they learned to play a rough-and-tough game, always giving their adversaries strong opposition. The Everett Vikings were the first to claim the Wanda Steven's trophy which is given annually to the winner of the Everett-Holt annual classic with the score of 13-12. The team contributed one member to the All-City Team in tackle, Wayne Valerius, and two honorable mentions in center, Jim Beardsley, and guard, Terry Hodges.

In the past decade, the student body has never witnessed such a fine team as the 1957 squad. "Patterns in the Snow" was the record dance sponsored this year by the Girls' League. During the Christmas season, they went caroling and helped needy families by sending baskets to their homes. The "Merry Shiners" cleaned the trophy case each month to keep it attractive. The large project in the spring is the Presentation of Roses assembly held in June to honor girl graduates.

Honor Society

On February 21, 1957, the National Honor Society presented their formal induction of fifteen new members at a general assembly. Members who qualify for this organization must have at least a "B" average in scholarship and have attained recognition in service, leadership, and character, the cardinal principles of the National Honor Society.

"O Romeo, Romeo! wherefore . . ." The Drama Club really isn't "gone" yet, but they are getting experience for future acting. Besides doing scenes from one- and three-act plays, they have studied makeup, techniques in acting, scenery design, and lighting.

"Pixilated Picassos" is the name the Art Club members gave themselves this year. The high point of the year was the banquet held at the Charcoal Galley followed by a theater party. Some of the money-making projects were candy sales, sale of Christmas decorations, and individual projects.

With this controversial issue, the debate team went into verbal combat with Portland, Leslie, Elsie, and Haslett. The negative team won all four contests. In the spring forensics, Everett had participants in humorous readings, interpretative reading, extempore speech, declamations, and original oration.

All those sour notes today will be sweet tunes in the future as the Seventh Grade Band studies music and works toward their spring performances. They marched in the Memorial Day Parade with the Senior Band and put on a Demonstration Concert for the grades.

Seventh Grade Student Council

"Autumn Leaves" floated into the gymnasium when the seventh grade gathered for a fall party, planned by the Junior High Student Council. Besides the parties, the Council organized six pupils from each of the five homerooms into a hall patrol. Two representatives attended the monthly meeting of the Junior High Inter-school Council.

Socializing, slumber parties, horseback riding, hayrides, and a Christmas project sparked the agenda of the 306 Y-Teens sponsored by Miss Tangenberg. A tour of the Y.W.C.A. and a visit to the World Market was a highlight of Mrs. McCarty's Y-Teens. At Christmas time they provided food and toys for a needy family.

Seventh Grade Library Club members are shown reading a portion of the more than three hundred books they added to their personal libraries as members of the Teen Age Book Club. During Book Week in November they sponsored a book fair and bought five new books for the library from its profits. Meetings were held on Wednesday afternoons in the library.
